

BISHOP BROOKS'S SUCCESSOR.

Two Prominent Candidates in This City.

They Are the Rectors of Calvary and Grace Churches.

Two New York clergymen are being prominently mentioned in connection with the bishopric of the Massachusetts diocese recently made vacant by the death of Bishop Phillips Brooks.

One of these is the Rev. Dr. Henry T. Satterlee, rector of Calvary Church, and the other Dr. W. H. Huntington, rector of Grace Church.

REV. DR. HUNTINGTON.
Dr. Satterlee was a leading candidate for the position at the time Phillips Brooks was chosen, and it is thought that his chances of becoming the successor of the late Boston clergyman are very favorable.

He is forty-eight years old, a graduate of Columbia College and of the General Theological Seminary, and was ordained twenty years ago. His first rectorship was that of Zion Church, Wanamaker's Palace, N. Y., which he left to become rector of Calvary Church in this city there were only 40 communicants, and now there are more than 1,000. He is recognized as the leading candidate for the successful Episcopal clergyman in this diocese.

Four years ago, Dr. Satterlee was chosen rector of Michigan, but he declined the honor, preferring to remain and continue his work in this city.

Rev. Dr. William Reed Huntington, who died last summer, was about 50 years ago. He was educated at Harvard, graduating in 1859, and was class poet that year. He entered the ministry in 1862, and became rector of Emmanuel Church, Boston.

From 1862 to 1883 he was rector of All Saints' Church, in Worcester, Mass., and he became rector of Grace Church in this city.

Dr. Huntington has always been prominent in the cause of the Episcopal Church, and for many years has represented the Massachusetts diocese in the general conventions. He started the movement that resulted in the formation of the Prayer Book, and he represents the non-Liberal side of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this city.

But the Vanquished Swipes is Avenged by the Whirligig of time.

"Swipes, the Newsboy," whose defendant, Jerry Barnett, three years ago was the talk of Cherry Hill, is avenged. As the story ran, Swipes was in love with Josie Burke, and Barnett was the only rival he feared. His fears were not groundless, either, as Barnett met him one night and wiped off the sidewalk with him before the eyes of his lady.

This settled Swipes's fate. Josie married Jerry, and Swipes was disconsolate for a while. But the whirligig of time, however, had its way, and the vengeances of the united and联合了.

Mrs. Jerry Barnett has brought suit for damages, and Swipes was more than human did not profit coincide when he reads her tale of woe.
